

FL Technics Testimonial

As a global provider of consumable and expendable parts, aeroinv.com recognises the importance of building and maintaining strong relationships with all their customers across the world.

aeroinv.com has partnered with FL Technics, who strive to deliver the same high quality customer liaison and impeccable service, to ensure that there is a local presence providing support and expertise to the Eastern European market.

Choosing FL Technics as an exclusive sales partner for the CIS and CEE regions was easy for aeroinv.com; FL Technics has a professional attitude with values of Responsibility, Teamwork, Ownership and Discipline at the core of their reliable service.

The fast-paced nature of the aviation industry requires processes to run smoothly alongside a responsive and knowledgeable team – all of which are delivered successfully through FL Technics.

As an aeroinv.com Super-Agent, FL Technics has enabled the expansion of aeroinv.com expertise across the world. aeroinv.com looks forward to further building upon this dependable business relationship with FL Technics, helping one another to grow in the future.
