Business Development Director

Dear Paulius:

Kellstrom Industries has been working with FL Technics for more than three years now and has the highest praises for the organization. The staff at FLT is professional, courteous and understands the meaning of customer service.

The technical expertise at FLT is one the best I have come across in my professional career. Their knowledge of engine management and heavy maintenance on airframes is unsurpassed by any other MRO in the industry. It has truly been a pleasure working with FL Technics, and I look forward to expanding our business relationship in the future.

Regards,
